C., Oct. 27—An increase in the allowance for clerk hire at the postoffice at White Sulphpr Springs has been granted by the postoffice department at the request of Congressman Avis. The construction of the new million dollar hotel there has increased the business of the office so that it will soon be advanced from third to second class and has overtaxed the postmaster and his help. Captain Avis took the matter up and upon applications allowance for the office.

With the Action of Governor

WASHINGTON, ID. C., Oct. 27— ongressman Avis, who was promnent of counsel for the state in prosecuting the legislative bribe ases, was pleased, but not surprised, cases, was pleased, but not surprised when he heard that Governor Hatfield had settled up the Biddinger claim out of the governor's contingent fund. He was fully allve to the serious menace of these important cases if the claim was not settled and, like Governor Hatfield, was conversant with the innermost details of the service performed, which, to meet the ends of justice, must be withheld from the public for the time being. "I congratulate Govern-or Hatfield on the broad view he had taken in this matter, and his vigot-ous and independent stand in dis-charging this obligation of the charging this obligation of the state's. The reasons assigned by him will appeal to every loyer of law and order in. West, Virginia. Having been connected with those cases, continued Congressman Avis, "I am aware of information and facts that Governor Hatfield had before him, which he very properly dates." waich he very properly states will not be disclosed to the public at this time, rad's agree that when the public has all these facts, it will heartily approve of the governor's action in paying this lifelinger claim which is, in my opinion, a just and a reasonable clam, and should be paid by the state. I believe that the people who want these cases prosecuted to a definite concusion in the interest of justice, will generally endorse Governor (Hatfield's action in the matter."
